Frequent fire alarm incidents in recent weeks

- Katie will ask Julie about sending an email.

Noise complaint

- Luke will connect the resident with Julie.

Room booking request

- Julie hasn't replied to the email.
- Katie will remind Julie.
- Mary will ask the resident to contact Naomi too.

Admir received reply from Thirsty Ear

- The Superbowl event cannot be held at Thirsty Ear, as the fire destroyed beer installation.
- Prepare more refreshments instead.
- Hulsizer will be the event venue.
- Mary will send an email to Rachel regarding the venue availability and the refreshments.
- Mary will forward the email from the Events Committee to the Publicity Committee.
- Admir will follow up with the Thirsty Ear staff with respect to the repair.

Sign-up sheet for Heads of House Open House

- The current sign-up sheet requires MIT certificates, and many residents have trouble installing the certificates.
- Yuki will ask the Tech Team to work on a sign-up sheet that has similar features but is easier to use.

Officer recruitment

- Yuki received emails from 7 officers who plan to step down.
- Yuki is making posters for officer hiring. The advertisement will be in the first week of February.
- Plan to start interviewing in the 3rd week of February.
- Update officer list by the end of March.
- Consider setting up a Thirsty Ear Officer Committee.

By next week, AHEC will come up with a list of items that the Will Fund may be spent on, with priorities, price information and links.
